

1. What is the final title of your project?
 - a. A Guide to College - NJIT
2. What is the problem statement of your project?
 - a. Students come into college with a lot of questions because everything is so new to them. The objective of this website is to educate and inform incoming students and parents. It will advise the reader regarding the information they need to know to make their NJIT experience as smooth as possible. The end goal is to set them up for success.
3. Who are the potential stakeholders of your project?
 - a. Students are the main stakeholders of this project and the subcategory of this would be their parents who are also trying to learn more to help aid their student's success.
4. What is this project's scope (boundaries, what is in and out)?
 - a. The scope of this project will include a welcome page, and within the subsections a parents page, things to know, essential materials, dorming, about NJIT, school tips, health, financials page.

Group members:

Laura Johnson, Nataly jimenez, Jaida Gordon, Israa Kafel